D.O. No. Y.18020/7/2020-EP(III)

25th December, 2020

Dear Chief Secretary / Administrator,

This is regarding the re-opening of Ayurveda, Siddha, Sowa Rigpa, Unani, and Homoeopathy (ASSU&H) Medical Colleges in the States / UTs. In this context, I would like to bring to your kind notice the advice of the Central Council for Homoeopathy (CCH) and Central Council for Indian Medicine (CCIM) tendered vide their letter dated 17.12.2020 and 15.12.2020 respectively that has suggested that in the best interest of medical education, and from the point of view of standardization, it is desirable that the Ayurveda, Siddha, Sowa Rigpa, Unani, and Homoeopathy (ASSU&H) medical colleges open at the same time across the country. A copy of the said letters of CCH and CCIM are enclosed for reference.

After considering all the relevant factors, CCH and CCIM have recommended that the colleges may re-open on or before 4th January, 2021 and the new academic session for UG to be started from 8th March, 2021. The CCH and CCIM have also given a suggestive schedule of training of different classes that is annexed with their letter. Further, the CCH and CCIM has advised that sufficient number of non-COVID beds may be made available in ASSU&H medical college hospitals to facilitate under graduate medical training. The Ministry has also obtained concurrence from the Ministry of Home Affairs for re-opening of ASSU&H Medical Colleges in the State and UTs.

Accordingly, the State/UTs may take necessary steps to re-open the ASSU&H medical colleges on or before 4th January, 2021 in areas outside the containment zone by following all the safety norms issued by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare from time to time. Needless to say, all the SOPs / guidelines with respect to social distancing and prevention of spread of epidemic issued by Central / State / UTs Governments shall be followed scrupulously by all the colleges.

With regards,

Encl. As above

To,

Chief Secretary / Administrator of all States/ UTs.

Yours sincerely,

RAJESH
